SHE CAN USE 'EM NOW—Mrs. Jack Voohees, 1562 Taft street, Lemon Grove, here looks mighty pleased over the new, novel premium which Mae Lewallen, Monterey Market owner is handing her as she pays for her grocery purchases. Mae is giving as a premium, for a limited time, U. S. Postage stamps, 5c for each dollar purchase. He says the customer can use that premium right now, without waiting to fill up a hook or wait a long time to use them. With Mrs. Voorbees are children liend and Gall.

La Mesa Recreation-Parks Department will inaugurate two classes which directors may have been much in demand by Lemon Grove and Spring Valley residents.

A class in arts and crafts and one in charm and modelling are on the schedule. Arts and crafts group will work with drawing, leather, clay, jewelry, weaving, and copper, and is open to boys and girls in two sections, ages T to 16 years. Sessions will be held each Wednesday. 3 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.

The charm and modelling class

I am continually surprised the number of persons whay to me "I didn't know yo had reopened Solimine's of Club!"

Well, we are open again and I want all my acquaintances to know about it and come vis-it with me.

There are several ways I sould remind our followers that we are back at our former location serving the tastiest Italian-American aprealities ever prepared anywhere, but the way I decided to do it to offer our menu's choleast items at a dramatically low price. That way we will entire the old patrons as well as the new ones.

Sincerely,

GEORGE SOLIMINE

Services were held last Wed-nesday. February 27, in the Greenwood Mortuary, for Mrs. Mary E Lehner, 63, of 2228 Central Ave Spring Valley, who passed away Saturday, February 23 Cremation followed.
